

Aviation Products Liability

DUAL
OLIVA

Did you know you could insure your client's aviation exposure on a stand-alone policy via DUAL Oliva?

Placing products liability cover for companies manufacturing for the aerospace and aviation sector can be difficult. DUAL Oliva have worked with a leading aerospace insurance specialist and created a standalone products liability policy.

Our risk appetite

- ✓ Products for civil
- ✓ Products for military
- ✓ General aviation products
- ✓ Aerospace products

Key features

- Aviation liability wording
- Specialist knowledge of the industry
- Standalone product, so no requirement to additionally insure the commercial combined covers
- Ability to write in conjunction with our Engineering or Manufacturing products
- Grounding liability included as standard (covering financial compensation and investigation costs for airline operators following any occurrence due to the product manufactured)
- Working parties liability cover providing cover for the public liability risk associated with 'airside' work
- High limits of indemnity available
- Working parties liability can be extended to cover 'Personal Injury' covering any damages awarded to a third party following the action of the policyholder or their employee whilst working airside or on an aircraft.

What you can always expect from DUAL Oliva

- Contract certain terms ready to send to your client
- Swift turnaround in line with your client's deadline
- Minimum premiums start from GBP 3,000 +IPT
- Access to experienced underwriters offering a fast and flexible service
- A rated security.
